

VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

"V" is an independent charity set up as a result of the government project, the Russell Commission, to inspire a new generation of young volunteers and encourage more young people to give their time and talents to improve their communities.

Can you help us find new opportunities for younger volunteers?

In anticipation of more enquiries from younger people, we would like to know about any volunteering opportunities you have, or new opportunities you would like to develop, that are particularly suited to younger volunteers, aged 16 to 24. Please call the Volunteer Centre, or alternatively, download this questionnaire and email it back to us.

1. Please give your contact details:

Organisation

Telephone

2. What is the average age of your volunteers?

3. If you already have young volunteers working with your organisation, what do they do?

4. If you do not involve younger volunteers, can you tell us why not?

5. Would you like to recruit younger volunteers?

YES

NO

6 Would you consider developing new opportunities for young people to volunteer with your organisation?

YES

NO

7. Can you give a brief description of what these new opportunities could involve?

8. What training and support do you offer your volunteers?

9. How could the Volunteer Centre do more to help you?
